Day three was by far going to be our toughest day. One star team member down we had to hold off the others. A hound dog never gives up on a scent and we are proud that the strength and resolve seen last night held steadfast this morning.

With a relay team out every relay cycle it was vital that the remaining teams delivered - and deliver they did; with three wins a third and a fourth.

Our swimmers of the sessions have demonstrated their ability to get in, and back up each race. These swimmers have been our highest points contributors for the day.

Through Days 1 and 2 the hound dogs strengths have been our sprinters, while they continued to perform admira-
